1. Library Closings

2. Collection Management

Collection Development

Loudoun County Public Library (LCPL) provides a range of materials in a variety of formats to meet the needs and interests of its customers.

Items in LCPL's collection are selected based on intrinsic merit, appropriateness, and customer demand. LCPL strives to offer a balanced assortment of viewpoints in all subject areas. Materials are judged on the entirety of the work and not on isolated passages. LCPL is an apolitical public service. Therefore, opinions shared in materials are neither endorsed by LCPL, its Director, nor the Loudoun County Public Library Board of Trustees (LBOT).

Use and access of materials by minors is solely the responsibility of each minor's legal guardian(s).

Customer input regarding the selection or reconsideration of materials is encouraged and reviewed promptly. Requests for reconsideration are addressed according to LCPL Reconsideration Procedures.

The LBOT endorses the American Library Association's \(ALA\) Library Bill of Rights, the ALA's Freedom to Read Statement, and the ALA's Access to Library Resources and Services for Minors statement and interprets these statements to include all materials regardless of format.

Collection Maintenance

Materials that are outdated, no longer in demand, or in poor condition may be removed from the collection and distributed to LCPL support groups for sale or surplus auction held by Loudoun County Government.

3. Facilities Use

“Facilities” refers to all space occupied or used by LCPL, including the buildings themselves, lobbies, meeting rooms, display areas, grounds, parking lots, and common areas. No group or individual will be excluded from equal access to facilities because of sex, race, religious or political persuasions or views.

Groups and individuals eligible to use facilities may do so free of charge. Facility use does not constitute LCPL’s endorsement of the beliefs, ideas, or policies expressed by groups or individuals using the space. Customers must comply with the Rules of Conduct (see policy 9) and all applicable laws including, but not limited to, the Code of Virginia, the Codified Ordinances of Loudoun County, and any town ordinances for those libraries located within incorporated towns.

The Branch Manager (or designee) must give advance permission for use of facilities. LCPL-sponsored programs and activities take precedence over other activities. Use by outside groups or individuals may not interfere with LCPL operations.

All meetings must be open to the public. Outside groups or individuals using facilities may not limit or restrict attendance except for fire code capacity limits. The Branch Manager (or designee) reserves the right to refuse or terminate the use of facilities when, in the manager’s best judgment, the use does not conform to LCPL policy or poses health or safety risks.

Use of facilities may be permitted under the following conditions:

1. Meeting room users must accept and adhere to the Meeting Room Guidelines. (Addendum A)
2. The sale of goods or services, admission fees, and/or solicitation of monetary donations or personal information is prohibited.
3. Petition signing must be conducted outside LCPL buildings at a minimum distance of 25 feet from building entrances. Users must submit a Drive or Petition application (Addendum B).
4. Individuals or groups using facilities may not interfere with other customers use of the library.
5. Lobby use is restricted to non-partisan voter registration, blood drives, and LCPL-sponsored events or activities. Users must submit a Drive or Petition application (Addendum B).

To ensure free and unimpeded access to the library, facility use may be denied based on available space or the requested activity. LCPL reserves the right to place additional limitations on facility use at any location due to varying demands at those locations.

Use of the following is restricted to LCPL, LCPL support groups, and federal, state, or county government agencies:

1. Unattended collection bins.
2. Signs, emblems, banners, etc., displayed or posted on LCPL buildings or grounds.
3. Parking lots, unless such facilities are shared.

LCPL is not liable for damages caused to the user or his or her property while using facilities, and LCPL will be held harmless from any liability to third parties for injury caused by any persons or groups while using facilities. Meeting room users are not covered by the County of Loudoun's liability insurance.

4. Fees

The Library Board of Trustees (LBOT) will approve all fees, as referenced in the Schedule of Fees below. The LBOT authorizes the Library Director to develop procedures for staff to waive fees for customers due to extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the customer.

Schedule of Fees

Item	Cost
Lost or Damaged Items	List price per item
Printing	$0.10 per page for black and white $0.25 per page for color
Interlibrary Loans (ILL)	LCPL does not charge a fee; customers are responsible for any fees assessed by lending institutions

5. Gifts

LCPL welcomes monetary gifts, bequests, endowment funds, and gifts of property, services or materials from individuals, groups, foundations, or corporations. Gifts are accepted at the discretion of the Director and/or the Library Board of Trustees (LBOT). All gifts will be evaluated for appropriateness. Gifts are not a substitute for taxpayer funding. The LBOT and staff are not obligated to accept gifts, items, or funds, and reserve the right to refuse any gift.

Gifts valued at $5,000 or less will be reviewed and accepted by the Director or his/her designee.

Gifts valued over $5,000 as well as conditional gifts will be reviewed and accepted by the LBOT upon the recommendation of the Director.

LCPL takes full ownership of gifts and reserves the right to decide use, condition of display, and final disposition of all gifts it receives. LCPL may provide a receipt acknowledging the number of donated items but will not estimate their value.

LCPL may transfer gifts deemed unusable to LCPL support groups or outside organizations.

6. Internet and Computer Use

Summary

Essential digital public services provided by LCPL include access to computers, the Internet, and basic software. In addition, LCPL provides an unsecured wireless network for customers' use with their personal devices.

Customers are permitted to use computers to access the Internet. In accordance with Virginia Code §42.1-36.1, LCPL employs commercial filtering software and/or parental controls on LCPL computers and mobile devices to block the display of illegal material and material that is potentially harmful to children. However, no filtering software or control is completely effective. It may inadvertently allow access to content intended to be blocked and, conversely, it may block unobjectionable content. Customers 18 years of age or older may request unfiltered Internet access for bona fide research or other lawful purposes.

Parents and guardians – not LCPL staff – are responsible for the information selected and the sites visited on the Internet by the children in their care and for supervising their Internet use on LCPL-owned computers and devices, as well as on personal devices used in the library. This policy supports the ALA's Intellectual Freedom statements, including The Library Bill of Rights, and Access to Digital Resources and Services.

Acceptable Use

The following guidelines have been established for acceptable use of LCPL-owned computers and equipment, as well as personal devices used on LCPL property:

- A. Time limits on the use of computers and equipment, as well as bandwidth limits on wireless access, may be enforced to ensure that all customers have an opportunity to use those resources.
- B. Any activity that violates Federal, state, or local laws is prohibited on both LCPL and customer devices. Examples of illegal activities include, but are not limited to, fraud (which includes disguising or falsifying sources of electronic mail or other electronic communications with the intent of misleading, defrauding, or harassing others); libeling and slandering other persons; displaying or distributing child pornography; Virginia Code §18.2-374.1:1 or other obscene materials; Virginia Code §18.2-372, or materials deemed harmful to juveniles Virginia Code §18.2-390. LCPL must comply with all proper judicial processes.

- C. Customers may not violate software license agreements or infringe on copyrighted material. United States Copyright Law: U.S. Code, Title 17 prohibits the unauthorized reproduction or distribution of copyrighted materials, except as permitted by the principle of “fair use.” This includes most electronic information sources. Users may not copy or distribute electronic materials without the explicit permission of the copyright holder. Customers are responsible for consequences of copyright infringement.

- D. Customers may not attempt to or modify LCPL hardware, software or any configurations via workstations or any wireless network. This includes, but is not limited to, attempts or succeeding to evade or disable LCPL’s Internet filtering software; the intentional propagation of computer viruses or worms; and “hacking” of any kind. Customers may not interfere with the activities of LCPL or its network in any way. Customers may not attempt to intercept, monitor, disrupt, or impede other customer’s communications or to access or alter other customer’s data or software.

Failure to follow this policy or the Rules of Conduct (see policy 9) may result in suspension of Internet or library privileges.

User Responsibility

LCPL computers are in public areas and information viewed on the screen may be visible to customers of all ages. Customers are asked to view content appropriate to a public space and respect the privacy of others. Staff may ask customers to take action to address the situation if other customers express concern about the nature of their web browsing.

Customers accept that LCPL makes no representation or guarantee that computer or Internet services, including wireless service, will be uninterrupted, error-free, virus-free, timely, or secure, nor that any Internet content is accurate, reliable, or safe in any manner for download or any other purpose.

Use of LCPL’s hardware, software, Internet service, wireless network, and electronic information resources is entirely at the risk of the customer. LCPL will not be liable for any damage that may occur to any computer, peripheral equipment, device, or storage media; loss of data or confidential information; unauthorized access to or alteration of data transmission; and/or any other direct, indirect, special, incidental, consequential, or exemplary damages resulting from or arising out of use of LCPL’s Internet service, equipment, or other devices; wireless network, and/or electronic information resources or inability to use these services; or any other matter relating to these services.

102 North St. NW, Suite A, Leesburg, VA 20176 | 703-777-0368 | library.loudoun.gov

Customers agree to hold LCPL harmless from any claims, losses, damages, obligations, or liabilities relating to the use of LCPL computers, network, or other equipment, or related to the use of information obtained from LCPL's electronic information system.

8. Naming of Libraries

The Library Board of Trustees (LBOT) may provide recommendations for the naming of LCPL branches to the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors (BOS), which has final approval. The LBOT has the authority to name collections, additions, rooms, or other significant areas within any LCPL branch.

When taking these actions, the LBOT will follow the guidelines set forth in the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors Finance and Government Services Committee's Resolution Relating to County Memorials and the Names for County Parks, Sites, and Facilities (adopted March 17, 1992), as well as the following additional guidelines:

1. Generally, the library will carry a name that reflects the geographical area in which it is located or for which it serves in order to be understood by customers; for example, Lovettsville Library. Exterior signs will identify each library as such; for example, "Lovettsville Library." The library may be further identified as "A branch of Loudoun County Public Library."
2. In exceptional circumstances, the LBOT may consider naming libraries, collections, additions, rooms, or significant areas within a library after a donor, provided that the donor paid for a substantial portion or the entire cost of construction or renovation or has donated a significant amount of money to LCPL.
3. In exceptional circumstances, the LBOT may consider naming libraries, collections, additions, rooms, or significant areas within a library in honorable recognition of an individual or group, provided the following criteria are met:
 - a) Commemorative naming in memory of individuals must at least one year after the death of the individual.
 - b) Commemorative naming may only be for civic or charitable organizations (not for corporate or religious organizations).
 - c) Commemorative naming is in recognition of outstanding achievement, distinctive service, or significant contribution by the individual or group to the library, local, or national community.

9. Privacy

LCPL protects the privacy of all customer information, including requests for service or materials, loan transactions, online sites visited, and resources accessed. Records that link personally identifiable information to borrowed or requested materials or to website visits are kept only as long as needed for operational purposes.

LCPL does not release such information to individuals or to any private or public agency unless it is required to comply with proper judicial processes, such as a government order to produce documents or information.

Per Virginia Code 2.2-3705.7, parents and/or legal guardians will have complete access to the records of their minor child or children. LCPL staff may only access personal data for the purpose of serving customers.

LCPL uses Google Analytics to gather information regarding usage patterns of LCPL-maintained websites. Google Analytics uses cookies to collect statistical data such as browser type and operating system. No personally identifiable information is stored. Customers may opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics without affecting their use of LCPL-maintained websites.

Confidentiality of customer records is protected under state law per Virginia Code § 2.2-3705.7.
